Hello fellow artists,

The past year and a half has been a whirlwind! Conducting over 2 dozen workshops around the country and 4 International group trips would have been plenty to keep me busy. I had the additional task of writing my very first book for North Light Books while keeping up with the day to day responsibilities of life. Some how, it all got accomplished with time to play!

I am grateful for the opportunity to write my book, "Exploring Textures in Watercolor" The experience was extremely challenging yet exciting and rewarding. I look forward to the book being released in November, 2008. I have been invited by UW-Oshkosh, my alma mater, to have a one woman exhibit that will showcase each chapter's projects and conduct the first of many 'Book Signings'. I hope you can join me for the closing reception and the book signing on November 9, 2008 from 1:00 to 5:00 at the Gail Steinhilber Gallery located on the top floor of the Reeve Memorial Union.

I thank all the 2007 and 2008 workshop locations from Florida to Maine and Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin for inviting me to present workshops to great students and beautiful venues.

In Mid-April, 37 travellers embarked on an amazing trip to Greece. It was our largest group ever and we all had a Great Time! People came from Florida, Colorado, Arizona, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin to eat, drink and enjoy all things Greek! Our guide, Gabriella, was truly a wealth of knowledge as well as delightful. Our two week odyssey from Athens to Nafplion and the tiny island of Hydra was an experience we will never forget.

2009 is coming on quickly. Dave and I will start off the year in January by taking a group to Costa Rica for 10 days of adventure and an authentic cultural experience. [As of this writing, there are only 6 spots to fill] I have 5 workshops scheduled in Florida with an extra one to teach in Illinois while enroute to Florida.

Thank you for letting me be a small part of your lives and I sincerely hope you are all painting with passion.

Scholarships

Kayla Douglas, scholarship winner, relaxing in Greece.

This past year, it was my honor to give several scholarships to individuals around the country. One large scholarship went to Kayla Douglas from Pagosa Springs, CO. Another went to Jeff Zdrale from Wisconsin. It was also my pleasure to contribute art work to several area projects to help promote the arts in the Oshkosh area.

What's Next?

The Wisconsin Watercolor Society is having their Fall Exhibit at The Center for the Arts in Wausau, WI. The dates are, November 14, 2008 to January 4, 2009. The opening reception is, Friday, November, 21st., from 5:00 to 7:00. The WWS will be exhibiting in the Loft Gallery while another exhibit is presented in the main gallery. The Center for the Visual Arts is located at 427 North 4th Street, Wausau, WI.

Since some travellers are not interested in foreign travel, we are planning a workshop in Colorado for the Fall of 2009. We are investigating lodges and B&B's that could accommodate a group. I have taught in Colorado for years and have always wanted to organize my own Plein Air Workshop in the majesty of the Colorado Rockies. The crystal blue skies and the color of the golden aspen trees are amazing!

*Title: "Morning fog along the Rockies"
This painting was started in Colorado while hiking in the mountains.*

Plans are in progress for several workshop/trips. Portugal has been requested many times from fellow travellers. So, Dave and I are working on plans for a group trip to Portugal for the Spring of 2010. Brochures will probably be available by the Fall of 2009. If you would like to receive a brochure for this trip, contact Joye to be put on the mailing list.
